SENATOR EARLE DEAD

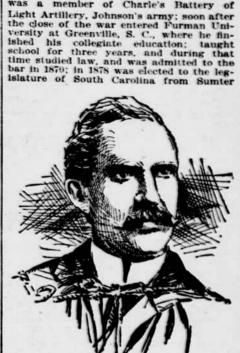

Victim of Bright's Disease, From Which He Had Suffered Long.

Committees of Both Houses of Congress to Attend the Funeral-Suc

United States Senator Joseph H. Earle died at his residence in Greenville, S. C., yesterday afternoon at 5:35 o'clock. He had been ill for several weeks, but until yesterday hopes were entertained for his recovery. Bright's disease was the trouble, His death is universally deplored. Jeseph H. Earle was born at Greenville. S. C., April 30, 1847. Having been left an orphan during his early childhood, he resided with his guardian near Sumter, S. C., and attended the high schools at that place until he entered the service of the confederacy in the war between the states. At the close of the war, while still a boy, he was a member of Charle's Battery of county, and in 1882 was elected to the state senate from the same county; was a delegate to the national democratic condelegate to the national democratic conventions in 1880 and 1884; was appointed by the latter convention a member of the committee to notify Mr. Cleveland of his nomination; in 1886 was elected attorney general of South Carolina, and was reelected to same office in 1888; in 1890 opposed B. R. Tillman as the conservative democratic candidate for governor, and was defeated; in 1894 was elected to the office of circuit judge, which position he held when elected to the United States Senate as a democrat on January 27, 1897, to succeed J. L. M. Irby; received all the votes of the joint assembly except one, which was cast for George W. Murray, republican; took his seat March 4, 1897.

Gov. Ellerbe will have to appoint a successor to serve until the general assembly meets next winter, when it will elect a senator for the unexpired term. Congressman McLaurin and Attorney General Barber are mentioned in connection with the appointment.

Upon receipt of the news of Senator Earler's death. ventions in 1880 and 1884; was appointed are mentioned in connection with the appointment.

Upon receipt of the news of Senator Earle's death, Senator Tillman called on the Vice President in regard to the appointment of a committee to represent the Senate at the funeral, as that body would not be in session today. Mr. Hobart named as the committee Senator Tillman of South Carolina, Senator Clay of Georgia, Senator Chandler of New Hampshire, Senator McEnery of Louisiana and Senator Harris of Kansas. Speaker Reed also appointed a committee to represent the House, with William Elliott of South Carolina as chairman. The other members of the committee are Representatives Terry, Lanham, Hunter, Skinner, Barrows, Ellis and Pierce, Sergeant-at-arms Bright telegraphed to Greenville in and Pierce. Sergeant-at-arms Bright tele-graphed to Greenville in regard to the graphed to Greenville in regard to the funeral arrangements, and the two con-gressional committees will leave this city tonight, reaching Greenville about 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The members of the Committee will leave for home Sunday

MR. MICHAEL'S CASE SETTLED. He Has Qualified as Chief Clerk of the State Department. Mr. W. H. Michael qualified as chief clerk of the State Department late yesterday afternoon. The civil service commission had raised the question of Mr. Michael's eligiraised the question of Mr. Michael's eligibility under the civil service law, and the question was referred to the Attorney General. That official gave an opinion to the effect that Mr. Michael had been a bona fide employe of the interstate commerce commission, and as such could be properly transferred to a similar place in the State Department and promoted to the office of chief clerk without examination. In other words, the Attorney General holds that Mr. Michael's appointment as chief clerk is in conformity with the rules and regulations of the civil service commission.

MUST TAKE EXAMINATION.

Persons Who Were Originally Ap-pointed Confidential Clerks. Miss Blanche Baldwin, Miss Pugh and Mr. Farrow have been ordered to examina-Mr. Farrow have been ordered to examina-tion with a view to their transfer to the £1,200 class in the Treasury Department. Miss Baldwin, who is the daughter of the auditor for the Treasury Department, and Mr. Farrow, who is the son of the auditor for the War Department, are now clerks for the War Department, are now clerks of the $1,800 class. Miss Pugh is the daughter of Judge Pugh, who resigned the office of auditor for the Navy Department a few weeks ago. She holds a $1,600 clerkship. These three persons were originally appointed confidential clerks to their fathers, the offices being then in the excepted class, but having since been included in the classified civil service.

LAID ASIDE FOR THE PRESENT. No Agreement by the Senate Committee Regarding Railway Pooling. The Senate committee on interstate com-merce met yesterday, and failing to agree upon any recommendation upon the pooling bill adjourned. Senator Chilton moved the postponement of the question until next December, but no vote was reached on the motion. This proposition was in accordance with a letter received from the interstate commerce commission, recommending that no legislation be enacted at present. The principal reason given for this was the fact that there are questions pending in the courts, notably those involved in the Joint Traffic Association case, which the commission thinks should be legally determined before a further effort is made at legislation. Presidential Nominations Confirmed.

The following nominations were confirmed by the Senate yesterday: David C. Fleming to be register of the land office at Sterling, Col.; Stanton Sickles of New York to be secretary of the legation of the Unit-ed States at Madrid; Richard S. Bostwick of Illinois to be surveyor of customs of the pert of Galena, Ill.; William W. Morrow of California to be United States circuit judge for the ninth judicial circuit; Frank A. Vanderlip of Illinois to be assistant secre-tary of the treasury; Brig. Gen. Z. R. Bliss to be major general; George Morgan Thomas of Kentucky to be solicitor of internal revenue; S. G. Morse of Port Angeles, Wash., to be Indian agent at Near Bay agency, Wosh., and Passed Assistant Engineer Frank H. Eldridge to be chief ergineer in the navy.
